FOIA LOG OCTOBER 2018

Tracking Number	Requester Name	Description	Received Date
		I am looking for apprehension data (time frame preferably from within the past 6-8 years) along the Southern Border specifically in a way that can be read into Arc GIS (.shp files, .mxd maps, etc.). I am currently in a Geospatial Intelligence class at Mercyhurst University where my project is to map out activity along the Southern Border between the US States and Mexico and to determine if there should be new fencing/walls put up. I have open source data of existing fencing, but if I could pair it with data on apprehensions, it would greatly improve the final product I could produce. I've filed a FOIA request due to the fact that there isn't any such data on Data.gov. I've included an image of the map that I currently have to provide some context as to why I am requesting the data.

		I am a journalism student at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and I am currently taking a course titled Data Driven Journalism. For this class, we were to interview a member of a government agency to talk about how data is utilized in their job. I have interviewed a worker for the CBP already, but they were unable to provide me with any physical data, since it is not available to the public. For my class assignment, I am requesting a single travel database that the CBP uses. Any database utilized in the agency is fine for my purposes, it is just going to be used so that I can analyze the data to prove that I've learned how data benefits the government and how it helps your daily functions. I will use the data to show my professor that I have learned the value of data and how it assists the usefulness of the CBP.

		Due to a recently failed background report, I have been removed from my deployment list set to travel to the border within the next two weeks. This is the same agency that rejected my background report once already and failed to respond when asked for reasoning or causes for the rejection. The current reports I have acquired show I have no criminal nor negative markings against me and I have reason to believe that there is either an error in my report or something that doesn't belong. The orders are set to be released within the next 5 days and I need this resolved as quickly as possible.
